Title: Chinati Events Records

Dates: 1992 - 2018

Extent: 8.7 linear feet; 21 boxes

Author: Finding Aid created by Hannah Yetwin

Abstract: The Chinati Events Records measure 8.7 linear feet and date from 1992 to 2015. The history of events at Chinati include the annual Open House which became Chinati Weekend, the annual Community Day, special events, unrealized events and lecture series. The collection also includes documentation of symposia that occurred in conjunction with Chinati's publications: Art in the Landscape, Art and Architecture, Light in Architecture and Art, It's All in the Fit, and The Writings of Donald Judd. Record types include correspondence, drafts of lectures and publications, guidelines, post-mortem meeting notes, ephemera (flyers and invitations), and photographs.

Administrative Information

Acquisition information: These records are the property of the Chinati Foundation, created by staff and relevant consultants between 1992 and 2018.

Separated materials: Storage media formats are currently housed in original order with their corresponding physical materials - to be pulled for future digitization.

Related materials: Print photographs; printed ephemera

Processing information: These records are a mixture of materials that were housed in Apartment 14 prior to it becoming the archive. Original order is not accounted for; intellectual arrangement has been applied according to naturally existing topics within the series.

Preferred citation notes: [Title of item], (date), Box [number], Folder [number], the Chinati Events Records, the Chinati Foundation Archives.

Restrictions on access: Access to the original archival materials requires an appointment. Some materials are restricted for privacy and legal protections.
