About the Chinati Foundation/La Fundación Chinati

The Chinati Foundation/La Fundación Chinati is a museum created by the late Donald Judd in Marfa, Texas. The special mission of Chinati is to preserve and present to the public permanent large-scale installations by a select group of artists, in which the art, the architecture, and the land are inextricably linked. Artists in the collection include Donald Judd, along with Carl Andre, Ingólfur Arnarson, John Chamberlain, Dan Flavin, Ron Horn, Robert Irwin, Ilya Kabakov, Richard Long, Claes Oldenburg and Coosje van Bruggen, David LaPlante, and John Wesley. Public tours and guided viewings of the collection, the conservation of artworks, education programs, artists' residencies, special exhibitions, lectures, performances, and publications are all vital facets of Chinati's mission.
